TELL ME WH(AI): THE IMPACT OF AI-DRIVEN TECHNOLOGIES ON CIVIC SPACE

WEBINAR
28 MAY 2024

What falls under the definition of Artificial Intelligence? Which areas of life does it affect? And what can be its impact on civic space and human rights? In this interactive webinar, you will learn the essential definitions of AI and understand how it is being used in various settings. Examples from both public and private sector will equip organisations with the knowledge needed to effectively engage with policies around AI. Through a group discussion, we will explore what CSOs can do to protect civic space and human rights from negative impact of AI-driven technologies.

AGENDA:

The webinar will be facilitated by Francesca Fanucci from ECNL.

- 10.00: Opening remarks
- 10.10: What is AI and other digital technologies / Myth busting
- 10.35: How does AI impact our civic space? Examples from public and private sector
- 11.00: Regulatory/policy developments on AI at international level: an overview
- 11.15: Group discussion among CSOs
